

Vornkahls in Nettlingen and Neighboring Villages

Following is a list of Vornkahl names recorded in the parish records of Nettlingen and Helmersen, 1649-1902. Also included are Vornkahls from the neighboring villages of Bettrum, Dingelbe, Groß Himstedt, Hackenstedt, Hoheneggelsen, and Nordassel and the city of Hannover. The list is in alphabetical order of given names. When given names are identical, the list is in chronological order of birth date. Small variations in the spelling of names that result from changes in style are not taken into account when alphabetizing the list. For example, the spellings, Anna and Anne, are not separated into two lists but are listed together in chronological order. In later years, names such as Carl, Caroline, etc., often were spelled with K in place of C. These names have been changed to begin with "C". The numbers in square brackets [000] are references to sources of data. The letter-number combinations in bold print, such as C3A, refer to the family tree charts, i.e., Chart 3A, where the individual is included. Not all persons can be assigned to a chart and therefore are not included in the charts.

A key to the abbreviations used in this list is in the section titled, "Introduction and Use of This Book."

- Notes:
(1) One of the baptismal sponsors for Johann Friedrich was “seine Schwester v. Nordassel AnneMarie Loehrs” [620]. Anne Marie Loehrs was the sister of Joh. Heinr. Vornkahl, the child’s father.
(2) A note in source [2472] states that Johann Friedrich was a cousin of Johanne Marie Augustine Vornkahl. Johanne’s father – who was Johann Friedrich’s uncle - was Johann Conrad Vornkahl (b. 1755). Johann Conrad’s brother, Johann Heinrich (b. 1744), therefore was Johann Friedrich’s father. Johann Conrad and Johann Heinrich’s father was Curdt Vornkahl, b. 1709.
(3) Anne Elisabeth Henriette Stantze was the widow of Johann Sylvester Burgdorf, Kotsaße in Luttrum.
